

Cooperation with national authorities - quiz

Q1. When national authorities have information on offences that fall into the EPPO competence:

- a) they can treat the information, with the only obligation of informing the EPPO*
- b) they shall provide without delay the information to the EPPO, so that they can decide on the evocation of the case - right*
- c) they shall consult the EPPO to decide how to treat the information*

Q2. When national authorities conduct an investigation in respect to offences that might fall into the EPPO competence, but they believe that the EPPO will not exercise its competence:

- a) they continue the investigation after informing the EPPO, by forwarding a report on the case - right*
- b) they continue the investigation without informing the EPP*
- c) they shall suspend the investigation and inform the EPPO*

Q3. When the EPPO becomes aware of allegations of offences that do not fall into its competence:

- a) it shall continue its investigation*
- b) it shall stop its investigation to inform the national authorities*
- c) it shall continue its investigation and shall inform immediately the national authorities about such offences, by forwarding the relevant evidence – right*

Q4. During the time the EPPO decides on the evocation of the case, further to the information received from the national authorities:

- a) the national authorities continue to treat the information and to investigate the case*
- b) the national authorities shall abstain from treating the information and shall only take urgent measures – right*
- c) the national authorities shall treat the information in close consultation with the EPPO*

Q5. During the time the EPPO decides on the evocation:

- a)* it may consult the national authorities – right
- b)* it will not consult the national authorities for any reason and will base its decision on the documents forwarded by the latter
- c)* it shall consult the national judicial body competent to decide the conflicts among judicial authorities in the interested EPPO State

Q6. During the EPPO investigation:

- a)* the national authorities may be instructed by the EPPO for implementing some measures – right
- b)* the national authorities shall not be involved in any case
- c)* the national authorities may request the EPPO to be involved in the investigation

Q7. The transmission of information from the national administrative authorities to the EPPO:

- a)* gives rise to inadmissible evidence
- b)* gives rise to admissible evidence
- c)* gives rise to a situation on the admissibility of evidence, which is governed under national law - right